STEWARDSHIP OF TREASURE

There is a certain urgency in today's Gospel as Jesus calls His first disciples – Andrew and Simon, James and John. Each one follows Jesus immediately, unhesitatingly abandoning nets and boats and father and fellow-workers. To what is Jesus calling me – at this moment, in these circumstances? What will I need to abandon in order to follow Him?

Question for Children: What do you think it was like for the people in today's Gospel to be called by Jesus? What did they have to give up in order to follow him?

Question for Youth: At the start of Jesus' ministry, Jesus invites people to "believe in the Good News." What are some ways that you could be more open to the truth and challenge contained within the Gospels?

Question for Adults: If someone asked you, "To what work has Jesus called you?" How would you answer?

RCIA

RCIA for the City of Superior

When John and Andrew first encountered Jesus, he asked them, "What are you looking for." The two men asked him where he was staying. By learning more about how Jesus lived was what would make him understandable and believable to the two inquirers. Jesus invited them to "Come and see."

There are those among us who want to know Jesus better. Their best guide is how we live our Catholic lives. If you know someone who wants to know more about our faith, invite them to "Come and see" at our church. Invite them to check out the RCIA process.

An inquiry session is scheduled for 7:00 p.m., Sunday evening, January 22nd, at Cathedral Parish in Kress Hall. That session will focus on the sacrament of Matrimony and the commandments that support family life. Any adult interested in learning more about the Catholic faith is invited to attend. If someone you know wants to know more about the Church, contact the parish office or Dick or Judy Lyons (1-888-851-6554 or 715 363-2224)
